

Annie Hyman Pratt's mastery is in developing Leadership, Team, and Infrastructure that drive growth, and fully operate the business —so Entrepreneurs can do the strategic and creative parts while also having the time, freedom, and impact they desire. Annie more than 10x'd her family business—The Coffee Bean and Tea Leaf—taking it from 7 domestic “Mom and Pop Coffee Shops” to an International Brand of 70+ stores, all in 7 years' time. She then led the company through a highly successful sale.

Annie spent the next 2 decades as a Top-Tier Business Consultant specializing in “Rapid Growth and Successful Change.” She has since worked with 75+ companies—in diverse industries—guiding them through virtually every challenge and growth stage imaginable. Her track record of success stems from her unique approach to business strategy and structure and her intense focus on the People Part that brings it all together.

Whatever challenges you may be facing in your business, Annie has likely already seen it – and solved it. Some of Annie's current clients include fast-growing, high-level entrepreneurs like: Jeff Walker (Product Launch Formula), Susan Pierce Thompson (Bright Line Eating), and Reid Tracy (Hay House).
